Beliefs

Profile of Graduates

The Lahore American High School

Lahore American School (LAS) is an American college preparatory international school located in Lahore, Pakistan. Advanced Placement courses are our highest level of academic courses that we present to our students. Our students are academically motivated and are all focusing on attending college or university upon graduation.

Academic Program

Our approach to teaching and learning at Lahore American School is based on an Inquiry/Project-Based Learning (IPBL) model, which is student-centered and bottom-up in its approach, emphasizing discovery, project/experiential learning, and collaboration. In support of this, LAS adopted a definition of High-Quality Teaching and Learning (HQTL):
"High-quality teaching and learning at LAS is collaborative, student-centered, differentiated, and informed by assessment. Students are empowered and inspired to reach their full potential as engaged learners and are celebrated for their achievements".

LAS Community Service Program

Lahore American School's Community Service Program is an innovative program that cultivates holistic development. It allows students the unique opportunity to give back to their local community, while concurrently exploring their career passions. By engaging in service, students contribute meaningfully to the community and learning the importance of empathy, responsibility, and the positive impact of giving back to others.

LAS Co-Curricular Program

The Lahore American School offers its students the following co-curricular activities to participate in:

1. Student Government
2. Model United Nations
3. The National Honor Society
4. The National Art Honor Society
5. South Asia Inter-School Association (SAISA)
6. Clubs (Service Club, Yearbook Club, Leadership Club)
